

RC-01

RC-02

The SWM boring will be used to design a solution to address the frequent flooding of the parking lot. The boring data will indicate the infiltration rates and ground water level of the existing soils.

